

BEAT WHITE SECRETARY OF COLORED BODY

Men Order Him to Leave Austin After Attack

AUSTIN, Tex., Aug. 22.—J. R. Shillady, a white man, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was severely beaten and placed on board a train for St. Louis today. Shillady had been "inciting negroes against the whites" and had previously been warned to leave Austin, according to County Judge Dave J. Pickle of Travis county.

Will Not Shirk Responsibility. The attack on Shillady, Judge Pickle said was made by himself, Constable Charles Hamby and Ben Pierce, none of whom, he declared would shirk responsibility in the matter. Judge Pickle emphasized, however, that he and his companions were acting unofficially.

Shillady was returning from a meeting with negroes Judge Pickle declared in describing the attack.

"I told him," the judge said, "that his action was inciting the negroes against the whites and would cause trouble and warned him to leave town. I told him our negroes would cause no trouble if left alone. I whipped him and ordered him to leave because I thought it was for the best interest of Austin and the state."

Prefer No Charges. Late tonight no charges had Shillady's assailants.

Shillady came to Austin yesterday and visiting the attorney general's department it was learned today inquired concerning operation of "foreign corporations" in Texas, and asked why a local branch of the National association for the advancement of Colored People had been disbanded two weeks ago. He was told the association had no permit to do business in Texas and that the disbanding was in the hands of local authorities. Shillady then went to the attorney general's department it is said and asked why Texas rangers were interfering with his association. Assistant Adjutant General Cope is said to have replied that rangers have been investigating organizations among negroes since the race riots at Longview about a month ago and had found that the teachings of the advancement association which advocate racial equality, was creating trouble between the races.

Late yesterday Shillady was called before a "court of inquiry" the proceedings of which have not been disclosed. Judge Pickle says that at that time he warned Shillady to leave Austin because he was creating trouble. Shortly before noon today Shillady held a conference with negroes and while returning to his hotel was accosted by Judge Pickle, Hamby and Pierce. Constable Hamby, according to the county judge, asked Shillady why he "was holding meetings and stirring up more trouble than Austin citizens can get rid of in ten years."

"You don't see my point of view," answered Shillady, according to Pickle.

"I'll fix you so you can't see," replied Hamby as he struck Shillady in the eye with his first.

Judge Pickle says he and Pierce joined in the fray and Shillady was beaten until his face bled freely and he "asked for mercy."

Shillady was then escorted to the station where he purchased a ticket for St. Louis and left Austin at 12:30 p. m. with a final warning from Constable Hamby not to stop in the limits of Texas.

There was no indication that local negroes resented the affair. Want Offenders Punished. New York, Aug. 22.—Officials of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People tonight sent a telegram to Governor Hobby of Texas, inquiring "what efforts are being made at once to punish the offenders" who administered a beating today to John R. Shillady, secretary of the organization. It was asserted that every effort will be made to secure retribution for this outrageous assault.

Passes Thru Waco. Waco, Texas, Aug. 22.—With a wide dark circle around his right eye and cuts and contusions on face and lips, John R. Shillady, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, today passed thru Waco late this afternoon on his way to St. Louis. Eight or ten men attacked him in front of his hotel at Austin, Shillady said.

Shillady said he did not plan to make any more stops in Texas and was not prepared to state what action his association would take as a result of the attack.

FORCE TO MOVE FARTHER SOUTH INTO MEXICO

Expedition Locates No Bandits—Ridicule Wild Rumors

MARFA, Texas, Aug. 22.—Little real progress was made today by the American expedition below the border in Mexico. It was reported by airplane that no bandits had been located, but the troops are expected to move to a new base south of the one used since they left the border Tuesday morning and are expected to resume extensive operations tomorrow morning.

Brand Rumors as Ridiculous. Wild rumors that Jesus Renteria's headquarters had been located, that bombing planes had gone there to bomb the bandit rendezvous and that eight more bandits had been killed by American troops were in circulation here but all were branded as ridiculous at headquarters. That an effort would be made to pay the remaining $6,500 ransom to Renteria or his family was indicated late today by General Joseph T. Dickman, southern department commander.

General Dickman took the position at the time Captain Matlack rescued Lieutenant Davis without payment of the total ransom that the United States government is too great to go back on its word, even to bandits. He stated today he feared Captain Matlack's action would result in treachery should other Americans be captured.

Country in Which Villa Operated. The scene of operations in Mexico at present and for the immediate future is the country over which Villa operated in November, 1917, when he attacked and captured Ojinaga and threatened Presidio, Texas. It is believed at least one of the bandits is in the vicinity of where the Villa rebels in the Ojinaga district made their headquarters in the mountains.

Defenses. Sanchez, another Villa leader was seen in the same district in which the Americans are operating some months ago. He has small bands scattered thru the mountains. American troops are taking every precaution to prevent an ambush that might prove another trap like that at Carrizal at the time of the Pershing expedition.

The line of communication is being closely guarded and airplanes watch every body of Mexicans in the zone of operations. Consider Trail Hot. While Captain Matlack was in the United States the column halted at the field base in Mexico to permit him to rejoin it and to permit pack trains to return with forage. As soon as the pack trains return, arrangements will be made for moving the field base further south, where it is believed the bandits have gone. The trail still is considered hot and the search of every mountain canyon, pass and trail will be continued.

A new base on the American side of the river is to be located at Presidio, sixty miles south of Marfa, on the Rio Grande. The base of the aviation corps is now established there. Supplies for the troops will be sent from there to the columns in the field as soon as the new base in Mexico is established. General Dickman arranged to return to San Antonio tonight.

No Action to Halt Troops. Washington, Aug. 22.—The war department late today had taken no action towards halting the southward advance of the eighth cavalry troops thru the section below the Texas Big Bend district. Officials continued to maintain silence regarding the scope or secondary purpose of the expedition.

Folk to Appear. Monday the committee will hear Joseph W. Folk who was to have appeared tomorrow, on behalf of the Egyptian, the succeeding days up to Friday are to be devoted to work on amendments in the hope of agreement on a report by Thursday night. On Friday the Greeks and other mid-European peoples are to be heard and on Saturday a session will be devoted to Irish claims. William C. Bullett, another Versailles adviser, probably will appear during the following week.

Point to Collapse of Effort. Developments today pointed with increasing certainty to the complete collapse of the effort to pass a compromise resolution along the lines of President Wilson's suggestion for reservations apart from the ratification itself.

Republican leaders declared presentation of the resolution only had cleared the air so far as they were concerned and had revealed beyond doubt that the group of Republican reservation advocates would insist on having the qualifications a part of the ratification. On the Democratic side it was asserted the move had accomplished its purpose of showing that the Democrats and a large number of Republicans stood for ratification with reservations of the same sort, differing only in the methods to be pursued, and that textual amendment of the treaty was out of the question.

The Democratic leaders indicated, however, they had no intention of bringing the resolution to a vote.

Robles Calls On Caranza to Quit

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Aug. 22.—A copy of a manifesto calling upon President Carranza to resign issued in Mexico City by Alfredo Robles Dominguez, prominent engineer and former adviser of President Madero, has been received here.

Dominguez, who heads his manifesto "before the danger" and who asserts he is not a rebel nor an advocate of sedition, urges a provisional government to succeed Carranza. He charges Carranza is responsible for all of Mexico's interior and exterior difficulties. The manifesto is being circulated in the border in Mexico and in the Mexican quarters of this city.

Pursue Vain Search For Lost Flyers

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 22.—American aviators and troops aided by Mexican troops searched in vain today for Lieutenants F. B. Waterhouse and C. H. Connelly, army aviators, who were last seen Wednesday when they left Yuma, Arizona, on a return trip to Rockwell Field, near here while doing border patrol. The search is being made over a strip of land extending southward from the Mexican border and reaching approximately 130 miles across from the Pacific Ocean to the Gulf of California. A high mountain range bisects it north and south. All the country is wild extremely rugged, sparsely inhabited and much of it is heavily timbered. The airplanes from Rockwell Field covered the Pacific side of the Mexican territory and other patrols worked out of Calexico on the east side of the mountain. The radio telephone and telegraph services were used in the search and were augmented by the use of carrier pigeons. Lieutenant Waterhouse of Weiser, Idaho, lived here with his sister and Lieutenant Connelly resided in San Diego with his mother.

FOREIGN TRADE NEARER A BALANCE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Foreign trade of the United States came nearer reaching a balance in June than it has in any month in several years, the department of commerce announced today, owing to an immense increase in imports and a sharp reduction in exports.

Imports valued at $245,000,000 entered American ports, the total exceeding the amount brought to the United States during any previous month in history.

Exports dropped $350,000,000 from the high figure of June, but amounted to $570,000,000. For the seven months ended with July exports totaled $4,618,000,000 while imports amounted to $1,355,000,000 for the period.

VOTE TO EXTEND FOOD CONTROL ACT PROVISION

Would Provide Fine and Prison Term for Profiteers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Without opposition the house late today voted to amend the Lever food control act to extend its provisions to include clothing, containers of food, feed or fertilizers, fuel oil and implements used in production of necessities and to penalize profiteering by a $5,000 fine or two years imprisonment.

Strike Out Profiteers.

Proposals to make the act apply to profiteering in house and room rents, adopted by the house in committee of the whole, were stricken out in the final vote.

Efforts were made by both Republicans and Democrats to have the amendment provisions cover necessities other than those included in the amendment as reported by the agriculture committee. Inclusion of kerosene and gasoline was proposed by Representative Strong, Republican, Kansas, who said prices of these products had increased 300 percent in two years.

His amendment was rejected by a close vote. That of Representative Newton, Republican, Minnesota, to include raw cotton was eliminated on a point of order by Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas.

Attempts to bring farmers and farm organizations within the jurisdiction of the amendment also were blocked.

Include Recommendations.

Recommendations of Attorney General Palmer to include retailers doing a business of less than $100,000 under the profiteering section so that the department of justice might go after the little ones, were included in the measure as passed. Five hours of general debate preceded passage of the measure—the first legislative step in carrying out the recommendations of President Wilson in his recent address to congress on the high cost of living. The Hutchinson New Jersey act recommended to congress by the president as a pattern for the house next week.

Debate today consisted largely in attacks and defense of the administration Republicans asserting that the Democrats "with mastery inactivity" had avoided any discussion of remedies for the high cost of living and Democratic members charging that "Republicans had been busy playing politics and were unmindful of coming elections."

Senator Freylinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey, who opposed Mr. Palmer's nomination as attorney general, plans to speak on the resolution tomorrow.

STATE COAL MINERS MAY STRIKE AGAIN

Predict Strike if Men in Recent Tieup Are Fired

SURINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 22.—Another strike of Illinois miners was forecast here today by Lawrence Lamb, leader of the insurgent miners if operators discharge men who aided in the recent mine tie-up.

Under the Washington war time agreement, any miner absent from work for a period of two days without authorization is subject to discharge, and operators were said to be taking advantage of the provision to weed out agitators. Mr. Lamb said it was likely that meetings of miners would be held tomorrow in the Springfield and Belleville sub-districts to demand reinstatement of men let out because they struck as a protest against alleged improper methods of state miner officials.

Many miners subjected to fines for participation in the Mooney protest strike July 5th were said to be idle in the Belleville sub-district, refusing to return to work until the fines are remitted.

A disposition has been evidenced by officials of the state miners' organization to deal severely with the insurgents and it is understood operators will be backed up in their observance of the Washington agreement.

MAJOR BLACK RETURNS FROM ELEVEN MONTHS SERVICE IN GREECE

Major Carl E. Black, of the American Red Cross commission to Greece, returned to Jacksonville Friday night after nearly a year's service overseas. Major Black was accompanied home by Mrs. Black, who went to New York last week to meet him.

When the commission was sent to Greece in September, 1918, it was Mr. Black's expectation that he would return in May, 1919. However the work which had been outlined increased to such an extent that the return as planned was impossible. Ten members of the commission sailed from Patras on the west coast of Greece July 30, on the steamer Argentina of the old Austro-American line, and arrived in New York August 30. The journey is nearly 6,000 miles.

Col. Edward Capps, who was at the head of the commission, expected to return in this party, but found it necessary to remain in Athens to superintend some further work in connection with the issuance of various reports that members of the commission prepared. Major Davenport had a report of 150 pages on agriculture of Greece, and Major Black, who was deputy commissioner in charge of the department of military relief and hospital service, had two reports. Altogether there were quite a number of publications and as a matter of policy the commission determined to have these printed in Greece rather than printed in the U. S. and then forwarded.

Inspected All Hospitals. Major Black made an inspection of every hospital in Greece, took a survey trip thru Bulgaria, Albania and spent a shorter time in Serbia. The work in which he was engaged, while arduous, was intensely interesting. He has returned to Jacksonville in the best of health and will immediately re-enter the practice of his profession. Major Black is wearing the uniform of his rank with the insignia showing that he has been thrice honored by the king of Greece, but last night indicated his wish for early return to civilian life.

Asked for some facts about his work in Greece, Major Black said:

Tells of Work. "In reply to your inquiry as to where I have been and what I have been doing during the past year will say that I have had the privilege of being a part in the greatest and most unusual movement the world has ever seen. Probably every one of your readers contributed something to the American Red Cross and each has no doubt wondered what became of their money. What did they accomplish by their subscriptions?"

"I would like to answer this question. These contributions were used to help the Greek people who were suffering from the effects of the war. We helped every army of every ally."

"Doctors, nurses, social workers and business men managed epidemics of typhus and other diseases in distant lands and among strange peoples. Whenever the American Red Cross was accepted with gratitude, a Red Cross officer could go almost anywhere. His American uniform was his best passport."

"In these and many other ways the money of our more than 10,000,000 citizens was sent in aid of the distressed and war-stricken peoples of many countries. We have been the lasting credit of a generous and broad-minded democracy."

Halt Public Hearings On Treaty; Committee May Report Next Week

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—In a determined effort to report the peace treaty before the end of next week the senate foreign relations committee suddenly interrupted its public hearings here today and to go to work tomorrow on proposed amendments and reservations.

To Hear One Witness Monday

Altho one witness will be heard Monday, members thought that might be the last hearing before the treaty was reported.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the Democratic leader, declared his belief that the report would be laid before the senate during the coming week and asserted he had been assured the Republicans would cooperate to that end. Some Republican members agreed with his prediction but Chairman Lodge declined to say when he thought the committee would act.

Late today plans to expedite consideration of amendments were discussed at a conference of Republican members of the committee and they will go over the subject again tomorrow morning before the committee session. It is likely that among the first amendments voted on will be one proposing to strike out or modify the articles giving Japan control in Shantung province, China.

Tells of Shantung Clause.

The story of the negotiations resulting in the Shantung provision was told to the committee today by Prof. E. T. Williams, who was technical advisor to the American peace delegation. He said he had strongly objected to the settlement reached and thought the American delegates should not have assented to it.

reached after Democratic members had renewed their requests for early action and after some of the Republican senators not on the committee had expressed strong disapproval of delaying a report to hear additional witnesses summoned yesterday.

Folk to Appear. Monday the committee will hear Joseph W. Folk who was to have appeared tomorrow, on behalf of the Egyptian, the succeeding days up to Friday are to be devoted to work on amendments in the hope of agreement on a report by Thursday night. On Friday the Greeks and other mid-European peoples are to be heard and on Saturday a session will be devoted to Irish claims. William C. Bullett, another Versailles adviser, probably will appear during the following week.

Point to Collapse of Effort. Developments today pointed with increasing certainty to the complete collapse of the effort to pass a compromise resolution along the lines of President Wilson's suggestion for reservations apart from the ratification itself.

Republican leaders declared presentation of the resolution only had cleared the air so far as they were concerned and had revealed beyond

THE GROWTH OF THE GRANGE.

It is noticed that the Grange, national farmers' fraternity, is coming into new strength these days. The Grange was organized fifty three years ago and now has a membership of more than a million producing farmers. The emphasis which has been laid upon the importance of farm production is giving renewed interest to the great organization and a greatly increased membership is expected for this year.

THEY CAN'T BOOST SCHOOL BOOK PRICES.

School text book firms, it is said, are the latest to give indication of a desire to profiteer, as an effort is being made to change the scale of prices. But in this instance the law provides a remedy and Attorney General Brundage has sent out a warning that any variation from prices will bring prosecution under the law of 1917 which required that school book prices as listed then should continue for a period of five years.

THE GREEKS HAD THE RIGHT METHOD.

That there is nothing new under the sun is again brought to notice by the Christian Science Monitor. The paper says that one of the brilliant orations of Lysias, a Greek orator, was made two thousand years ago and directed against profiteers. The orator used all his persuasiveness in favor of a law advocating punishment by execution. The Greeks were evidently even more drastic in their efforts to deal with the profiteers than Americans are today in the proposed law which would provide a fine of $5,000 and two years imprisonment for violations.

ALL NIGHT LIGHT SERVICE.

An order for all night light service was made yesterday and will continue until further notice. This order was given because of the increasing number of burglaries. A well lighted city is nearly a well policed city and plenty of light is a very distinct aid to law enforcement. The additional cost for the all night light service is insignificant when the benefits are counted and really constitute a saving, for the city can thus do without the additional policemen whose services would otherwise be necessary.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Even cities can have tact. Some Jacksonville people who have recently been in Michigan were impressed with the signboards at Petoskey. At every road corner entering the city is an attractive sign with the wording: "Welcome to Petoskey, the finest city in northern Michigan."

As the tourists leave they cannot well escape seeing other signboards which impress the invitation to "come again." In a good many cities in Illinois the signboards erected for auto tourists brusquely call attention to the law and warn that failure to obey the law will bring arrest. It is likely that the Petoskey plan gets the best results.

THE CHAUTAQUA BEGINS.

The Jacksonville chautauqua opened the season of 1919 very auspiciously Friday. The attractions of the day were strong and gave promise of the good things that are in store during the coming days for chautauqua patrons. A perusal of the program is ample proof that the committee has spent a vast amount of time in selecting attractions and that expense was not spared.

It is worth while to mention in this connection too, that the people of Morgan county owe a distinct debt to the chautauqua directors who each year without any compensation whatever, devote the large amount of time necessary in making the chautauqua a success and the great entertainment and educational congress that it is purposed to be.

POSSIBILITIES THRU BONDS.

In the course of a very few weeks the people of Jacksonville will vote upon the question of issuing bonds to pay the floating debt, for the installation of a filtration plant and to move the light plant to the south pumping station. It is estimated that bonds in the sum of $210,000 will cover all these enterprises.

No doubt to some tax payers a $210,000 will sound like an excessive amount, but an investigation of the facts will show that by consolidating the light and water plants at the south station that nearly enough money can be saved in coal costs during a twenty year period to pay off the entire $210,000 of bonded indebtedness. This big saving will come because the haulage costs and the retailers' profits on coal will be eliminated.

The three proposals, after they have been formally submitted, should be carefully studied and that careful study will bring general support of the measures, because a majority of the people want to pay the city's debts, want pure water and would like to save enough money thru the plant consolidation to pay the bill.

AN INTERESTING STUDY IN FINANCE.

That was an interesting financial report that the joint committee presented at the council chamber last night. The finance figures for the past eight years showing the expenses of the various departments and something of the manner in which the present floating debt of $131,000 has accumulated. The report does not pretend to be an audit but simply a summary of the annual expenditures made during each of the years under the commission form of government.

A study of these figures will show that there is need for more careful financing in some departments. The committee, after presenting the statistics, makes a number of worth while suggestions for the conduct of city affairs. The abolishment of the garbage tax and changes in other departments are advocated.

One of the surprising showings is with reference to the cemeteries. From the charges made for work done many people supposed that cemeteries were self-sustaining whereas the report shows that in addition to collected fees about $22,000 has been spent on the two cemeteries in eight years.

Perhaps the best piece of advice given in the report is the suggestion that the "do nothing" policy is the most disastrous one that any city can adopt.

THE SUMMER OPTIMIST

If a man's an optimist these when when this old world seems all ablaze, if he can gayly sing and smile he is an optimist worth while. There is no trick in being gay, upon a spring or summer day, when breezes zip along, and birds put up a glad song, and nature seems to strain a thew to bring all pleasant things in view. Then any man can wear a grin, the ends of which obscure his chin. But when the sun rays scorch your pelt, and all your inwards seem to melt; when after days that make you weep, you go up at the break of dawn, all in worn out and spent and gone, me thinks it is another thing to beam around and smile and sing. I've never seen a sunshine gent who shone in summer worth a cent. I know a lot of Sunny Jims who prance around on buoyant limbs at other seasons of the year, but they all wilt when summer's here. When they break out with prickly heat, their words no more are honey sweet; when they are pestered by the flies, they hand us out no maxims wise. Like all the rest of mortal men, they cuss and rant, and cuss again.

BURGLAR MAKES GUN
PLAY ON VICTIM

John Mackey Driven Into Room at Frank Davison's Residence at Point of Gun—Burglar Then Ransacked House—Obtained Diamond Ring and Other Articles—Attempt to Enter Other Residences.

After backing John Mackey into his bedroom at the point of a gun about 3 o'clock Friday morning, a negro burglar ransacked the residence of Frank Davison, 211 Hardin avenue where Mackey is living.

The burglar obtained a diamond ring and several pins, two necklaces and other articles. Mr. Mackey did not hear the robber leave the house and remained in his room until 6 o'clock and it was not until that hour that the burglary was reported to the police.

Immediately upon receiving word of the burglary Chief Kiloran and Patrolmen Baker and Hurst began rounding up suspects. Four strange negroes are held at the police station on suspicion and it is expected that others will be picked up.

Chief Kiloran indicated yesterday that he probably would start a crusade against all strangers without visible means of support and give them hours to leave town.

According to the story told by Mackey who makes his home with Frank Davison, his brother-in-law, he left his room and started up stairs about 3 o'clock Friday morning. The burglar met him on the stairs and placed a gun against his body and backed him up the stairs to his room.

Mackey was badly frightened and as he did not hear the burglar leave the house he feared to go down stairs to the telephone as he thought he might still be in hiding. Mr. Mackey believes he would recognize the robber if he should see him again.

The burglars also tried to gain entrance into the residences of George Weigand, S. G. Chumley and Ralph Green. They were frightened away at the Weigand and Chumley residences by occupants of the homes who heard the noise they made in trying to get into the house. At the Green residence they attempted to enter thru a screened window. The screen was knocked out and fell on the bed where some of the family were sleeping, awakening them and scaring the burglars away.

JOSEPH DARUSH
RETURNS HOME

Was With Marines in Overseas Service for Number of Months.

Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Darush of 2 West Railroad street, were happily surprised Thursday night to have their son Joseph return home after overseas service. He enlisted in the marines and was assigned to the 13th regiment in June, 1918, and left for France in October. On the trip over they sighted a submarine which fired a shot at them. The shot tore away a part of the ship and some life boats. The Yanks held up their landing carriage. The young man was shocked to lose his captain and seventeen comrades by the "fin" on the voyage over. The return trip was a happy one and he landed in West Virginia, where he received his honorable discharge.

C. L. DEPEW IS NAMED
SUNDAY SCHOOL HEAD

Local Man Appointed Superintendent of Sunday Schools in Stark County, Ohio—Will Assume New Office September 1.

Clarence L. DePew has just been named as superintendent of the Sunday schools of Stark county, Ohio, according to a telegram received by Mr. DePew Friday morning. The appointment was made under the new plan adopted by Stark county from the program worked out by the International Sunday School association, educational council of evangelism. Mr. DePew will assume the duties of his new office September 1, and his many local friends will regret to know that he and his family will in all probability remove from this city at that time.

However, the appointment comes as a distinction and shows the high esteem in which Mr. DePew is held in the Sunday school world. He has been prominently identified with the work of the Sunday school in a large way for almost twenty-five years and during that period has made an enviable reputation as an organizer and manager.

Mr. DePew was for a number of years superintendent of the Sunday school of Central Christian church in this city, and when he left that post the school had the record of being the largest in the state and was also the first in the state to be graded. He served during the pastorates of Rev. S. P. Moore, Rev. G. S. Snively and Rev. R. F. Tharp. For ten years Mr. DePew served as superintendent of the State Bible school of Illinois, and has been working under the direction of the Christian Standard Publishing Co. for the past four years.

Russell Errett, head of the Standard Publishing Co., has had such an interest in the work of Mr. DePew that he has personally paid the latter's salary during the past year.

The plan which has recently been adopted in Stark county has been under consideration for some months but the state of Ohio is the first to adopt it. If the plan works satisfactorily there it will be adopted in other counties of the various states of the union.

Mr. DePew's duties in relation to the work of the Sunday school will be quite similar to those of the farm advisor in relation to farm work. It will be his duty to visit all the Protestant Sunday schools in the county, and to thoroughly familiarize himself with the work being done in each school. It is hoped in this way to correlate the work and effect an improvement.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

According to the Decatur Review Cupid began to get busy in Decatur just as soon as the government started war on the high cost of living. Already forty-seven marriage licenses have been issued in August which is seven more than during the entire month of July. Here in Jacksonville the number of licenses issued this month will hardly exceed the number during July. Last month County Clerk Riggs issued 25 marriage licenses. This month so far 17 have been issued.

COMING MONDAY AND TUESDAY—Katherine MacDonald in "The Women"

Large Crowd Present on Chautauqua's Opening Day

The first day of the chautauqua dawned clear and bright, cool and pleasant with all tokens propitious for a successful enterprise. The large, new tent looked very inviting and even the ropes were put on for the first time which was also the case with most of the canvas habitations of the temporary dwellers.

Everybody was in good spirits and all started off well. Some had been a little slow moving in and a few loads of household articles were unloaded but the most of the people were on hand and pleasantly settled and all seemed happy in their new surroundings.

It was pleasant to note the familiar faces of many who have been patrons of the chautauqua from year to year, showing their good taste and appreciation of a good thing.

William Scott had the children out in good numbers putting them through the various athletic exercises and making things interesting for them in general. The eating pavilion force was busy getting goods for the inner man; the care taker was all around gathering up scraps and keeping things neat and clean.

Rev. E. H. Collins Speaks

During the morning Rev. E. H. Collins gathered an audience, mostly of children, and gave an interesting talk on bodily health. He said a nation was built up of a strong people, while those in poor health were apt to be cross, peevish and ill natured. He said when he asked the characteristics of Americans, a French child said that they brushed their teeth, drank water before each meal and kept clean. He once stopped at a house in Canada where there were seven children who slept on the floor with a blanket under them and their clothes on. How can such healthy and vigorous? He told of four boys taken captive and who had been selected for special of ficials to a king who ordered them fed from his table but the boys asked to be supplied with plain food and water and were far stronger for it. He told of a boy who was puny and delicate at eleven but who cultivated his body till he became a strong man and was one of the great men of the nation and the children guessed to whom he referred in both cases.

Afternoon Session

The program for the afternoon assembly was simply superb and many said they had received the worth of their money already. Hon. Thomas Worthington, president of the chautauqua directorate, explained the work of the management, the effort to get good numbers and the need of active cooperation on the part of all. This is not a corporation with stockholders but it is owned by the people and each owner of a ticket has a voice in the directorate and it all will work together with a will immense good may be accomplished. He took great pleasure in presenting Rev. W. E. Collins as platform manager.

The latter said he had just come from a similar position in a town in Iowa and had not been obliged to scold at all. He had said to them he wanted to form an association of people who would bring babies into the audience and when the little folks would be very noisy would treat them like good resolutions; carry them out. Then he wanted those who had to compare notes during the program and especially did he want those who would stand just outside the tent and exchange recipes or opinions on political questions. All such please report at the close of the program. None reported. The gentleman's happy beginning made a fine impression. He then introduced

The Crawford Adams Concert Company which proved a very popular number. Miss Nan Syott gave a piano solo which elicited an encore which was equally fine. Miss Roselle Breed showed herself an entertainer of great ability. The average man loves to laugh and the company did it with her vivid impersonations. Mr. Adams with his violin delighted every one. He gave classical selections and then imitations of recitations and the like which captivated every one.

Next came

Mark Sullivan who really gave the unwritten side of the peace conference. It was a splendid presentation of a topic not fully understood; wholly fair and impartial; no endeavor to laud or denounce, to cover up or extol but to tell the plain facts.

It would be a great satisfaction to give an extended report of the effort were it possible. He said in brief:

President Wilson Outgeneraled When the peace conference was announced it was supposed that President Wilson's fourteen points would be adhered to and one of these was open diplomacy and proceedings and on the strength of this 112 correspondents went to Paris expecting of course to get the news according to President Wilson's ideas but that wasn't the plan of European governments more accustomed to do things in secret and from the start they outgeneraled President Wilson at every possible step.

When they saw the formidable array of newsgatherers they set about circumventing it and the first move was to secure a reservation in the peace conference to make all the people unanimous when they received a majority. This looked innocent enough on the face but was not so in fact.

The next day it was announced that the proceedings of the conference would not be open but the correspondents might have obstantial accounts to send which meant that the parties to the affair would suppress whatever was unfavorable to them and admit all else. The 112 men raised a storm of protest and asked that the ruling be changed and the reply was that there wasn't room enough for all. Then they asked for the admission of fifteen but that was politely denied in a lengthy letter but such a protest was raised that the next move of the Europeans was to call a mass meeting of all news gatherers and let them decide what they wanted.

Censor All Peace News. This meeting was packed with all manner of persons from all quarters of the globe, enough to outvote the Americans and they voted at the behest of their governments and the end was reached so that all news had to be handed in through a small wicker screen to the French censors who censored as they pleased and did the same with news sent the correspondents.

Then too, the facilities were meager. The wireless was capable of only a certain amount each day and the cable was needing repairs which couldn't be made on account of the presence of submarines and so was hardly capable of more than half the capacity and thus the difficulties which surrounded the news men will be seen.

Then too it is but just to say that in many cases it would have been unwise to tell the proceedings from day to day. For instance, at one time a matter relating to Italy was up for discussion and to have it sent broadcast before the conference would have worked injury.

President Wilson confidently expected the conference would last not longer than into February but was unaware of the duties and courtesies which would be demanded of him. He was simply obliged to spend ten days in each foreign capital of the European countries prominently connected with the conference and that took ten days in each.

In those countries there are two men, one who does the social act, such as the king of England, and a working man such as Lloyd George, but Mr. Wilson combined in himself the two. He always conducted himself with quiet and dignity and was greatly respected.

He should have held out the first day of the conference for the freedom of the press but he didn't and there was one mistake. Then too, had he known how long the conference was to last and had he known what he knows now he would very wisely have remained at home and sent delegates who would report to the home government before taking action and been guided by orders from Washington. Instead of assuming to represent with authority the whole nation.

League of Nations Work of One Man. The league of nations is largely the work of Gen. Smuts, a man whom Gen. Seeley of the British army tried to kill during the Boer war. Europe is afraid of another war. When we regard the improved appliances in the way of aircraft, arms, chemicals and other warlike means a war would mean making a desert of much of Europe that they want to avoid.

I do not think the peace treaty and league of nations would unduly involve the United States nor require the sending of troops abroad. The condition of France is sad beyond measure and she needs help and the same is true of Belgium. A dreadfully large fraction of their able men have been killed or crippled and they are prostrated.

German reparation was often mentioned but indemnity was carefully avoided. Other nations demanded that Germany pay the cost of the war which would be a hundred billions, but a careful inventory of German assets showed but 25 billions.

The matter of Shantung and Fiume are to be regretted but the cold fact is so much was done by the five men, leaving the others to do committee work that President Wilson was at a disadvantage and they had him where he was compelled to do some trading to get other desirable measures through.

No Law for Kaiser's Case. What about hanging the Kaiser? There are several questions involved. That matter has been thoroughly canvassed by able American lawyers.

There is no law in existence by which he could be tried. There are no twelve men in the world who could be found for jurors. He did have a part in the awful atrocities but it would be hard to prove it before a jury. Then too, enemies are undesirable. There is in Germany an immense royal party and if the Kaiser were to be executed they would be last and bitter enemies of the quarter. United States which would be un-English.

There's nothing like the hurt of sore feet. They drive every other thought out of your head. The misery of sore feet is the hardest thing in the world to get along with.

But there is no reason why you should have it. Your druggist has a new preparation called Ma-Oze Foot Relief that brings quick and amazingly soothing relief to feet that ache, or burn, to stinging corns and perspiration scalds—it makes feet glad to walk, puts them in shape for heavy duty.

To use it, put two teaspoonful into a hot foot bath; soak your feet in it. The relief is quick. Do this every night for a week and see the difference. It is amazing.

desirable. The Kaiser is dead politically and as ruler; let him alone.

The above is only a very meager outline of one of the best addresses ever delivered in Jacksonville.

Evening Session

The evening session rounded the most successful first day in the history of the chautauqua. There was only one hitch and that wasn't serious. The bureau supplying the attractions failed to explain that Mr. DeVry needed both a stereopticon and a moving picture machine so when he arrived he made known the need. The Wabash train on which he came was an hour and a half late. Mr. Pontius came to the rescue and hastened after the stereopticon belonging to the First Christian church. The Crawford Adams Company filled in a good part of the time in a highly satisfactory manner. Miss Synott carrying the people as usual with her humorous productions while Mr. Adams showed himself a wizard with his difficult instrument the violin. Some of his work, imitation of the warbling of a bird, was truly wonderful. All were most cordially received by the audience.

In due time the machine was in order and gave his lecture. He had 150 slides and spoke in a highly entertaining manner of dumb friends he has loved and trained so long and could the Chicago park board who displaced him have heard the comments of the people they would not have felt very comfortable.

His entire effort was very satisfactory and at a late hour a well pleased audience dispersed.

Quality and the Housewife

The question of whether the housewife demands quality, and is willing to pay for it, is of vital importance to every good merchant.

The women of today demand quality first. When they do not buy better food it is because their dealers do not offer it to them.

Our business is steadily increasing, month by month, proving beyond question that quality is appreciated by the housewives of Jacksonville and vicinity.

This increasing patronage enables us to sell the best at the most popular prices.

Cleveland, 10; Boston, 7.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 22.—Cleveland defeated Boston in a long drawn out game 10 to 7, the contest being marked by lack of control and ineffectiveness by all pitchers. Ruth was put out of the game for arguing a third strike by Umpire Owens. He threatened to hit Owens but was stopped by players of both teams.

Score: R: H: E. Boston, 113 000 011—7 13 2. Cleveland, 033 000 31—10 9 1.

Pennock, McGraw and Walters; Bagby, Morton and O'Neil.

New York, 5; St. Louis, 2.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 22.—In a bitterly fought contest in which a tie fight was narrowly averted, New York triumphed over St. Louis today 5 to 2. It was the odd game of the series and by losing the locals moved back to fifth place.

In the first inning when Sisler was at bat he complained that Mays was defacing the balls. Umpire Moriarity, after condemning four balls, walked out of the box and examined Mays' glove and clothing.

The pitcher then made a remark to Sisler, who hurried toward him, but trouble was prevented by the interference of Manager Burke and players.

When the locals took the field the New York players continued to heckle Sisler and when the umpire admonished them Shawkey beckoned him aside to settle the dispute. Shawkey was promptly banished. The Yankees won by hitting Davenport hard in the fifth.

Score: R: H: E. New York, 000 220 010—5 11 0. St. Louis, 000 200 000—2 8 3.

LIEUT. COL. GREEVES
SUDDENLY DISAPPEARS

Whereabouts of Officer Well Known to a Number of Morgan County Soldiers Uncertain.

According to dispatches carried in Chicago papers yesterday Lieut. Col. J. Gardner Greaves, for twenty years an army man, is being sought in Chicago by police and friends. About Aug. 1 he suddenly left his wife and two babies, who live at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and disappeared. A letter was received from his sister by William Gregg, 6420 Cottage Grove Avenue.

"Have you seen anything of Mr. Greaves?" she wrote. "He had a slight sunstroke and has acted queerly. He was discharged from the army as a lieutenant colonel. He had quite a sum of money with him. Thought he might have gone to Chicago."

Lieut. Greaves enlisted in the army as a private during the Spanish American war, and was wounded.

Soon after the United States entered the last war, he was sent to Chicago to assist Maj. Gen. Thomas Barry.

A number of Jacksonville men are acquainted with Lieut. Col. Greaves as he was stationed for a time at Camp Taylor as Division Adjutant of the 34th Division. William J. Eads of this city, who was a member of that division he was one of the best posted men on matters military of any officer at the camp. Greaves took care of all records of the division and when the division was broken up overseas he was sent back to the United States with the papers of the division. Lloyd Spire of this city and Russell L. Miller of Woodson were members of this record cadre. While at Taylor Greaves conducted an army clerk's school for a time.

He writes that he hopes to be here for the farmer's day program at the Chautauqua. Mr. Kendall while in Minnesota is looking after some land owned by L. S. Doane and J. S. Pindley.

PUBLIC SPIRITED ACTION

There is a long strip of oiled road now between this city and Waverly. Thanks to the public spirit of a number of citizens. The roads from Waverly to the McMillan farm just west of the Bergsneider farm formerly owned by Robert Morrison and the endeavor was to get the work completed to the city but the commissioner of that district couldn't see his way clear to do anything about it. The county commissioners agreed to pay half the cost so George Beekman busied himself to raise the rest of the money. He says R. S. Wood, Wm. Reed, Leslie Reed and A. A. Curry each gave $100 and Mr. Bergsneider $50 and the work will be done.

OUTLINE PLAN FOR ISSUING BONDS

THREEFOLD PURPOSE IS DETERMINED UPON

Council and Citizens Committee Suggests Bonds in Sum of $210,000—Would Pay Debts, Build Filtration Plant and Consolidate Power and Pumping Station.

That was a very important meeting at the city hall Friday night when a resolution was adopted directing the city attorney and the city clerk to prepare for an election to present to the people the question of issuing $210,000 of bonds. The resolution was introduced by Alderman Flynn with a second by Alderman Cain. The action followed the presentation of an extended financial report made by Bernard Gause on behalf of the sub-committee appointed by the joint committee of citizens and council members.

A statement had also been made by Alderman Chapin as chairman of another special committee, wherein it was suggested that by the issuance of approximately $200,000 in bonds the city could provide for its floating debt, install a filtration plant and move the power plant to the south pumping station.

After the joint committee had approved the plan of issuing bonds and had fixed the necessary sum at $210,000, the council took like action and the city attorney and city clerk were directed to proceed with the necessary arrangement for outlining the bond and election ordinances.

Financial Statement.

After Mr. Gause had presented the complete financial statement which appears in this issue, it was approved and placed on file. At the suggestion of Alderman Moore it is to be printed in both city papers. Mr. Gause as a member of the committee appointed to prepare a financial analysis, explained to the city council that while in sympathy with the bond proposition, that he did not approve of the financial report because he did not think it complete enough, or that it accorded with the plan of work which had been outlined when the committee was appointed. He said he did not question the totals but that it was not made plain just how the money had been expended.

After full discussion of this report Alderman Chapin made an informal statement for another sub-committee with reference to the issuance of bonds. It was decided then to consider the whole matter without the figures at hand it was determined that $210,000 in bonds, as indicated, would pay the city's debt, install the filtration plant and provide for the removal of the power plant to the south pumping station.

It has previously been stated that the removal of this plant will mean an annual saving of $7,000 or $8,000 in coal haulage and the original cost of the coal. Such a saving will be large enough to pay off the entire bond issue in the course of a little more than twenty years.

Those who were present last night were Dr. E. F. Baker, Bernard Gause, J. J. Reeve, R. A. Gates, Mrs. A. C. Baldwin, Edward Loncrank, W. T. Hardy, Mayor Crabtree, Aldermen Chapin, Cain, Moore, Graff, Flynn and Ehnle.

T. M. TOMLINSON A TRAFFIC POLICEMAN

Mayor Crabtree Commissions Well Known Merchant—Other Citizens to Be Sworn In—Will Serve Without Pay.

T. M. Tomlinson was duly commissioned a traffic policeman yesterday by Mayor Crabtree, who was sworn in and entered upon his duties. This marked the beginning of civilian relief in the important matter of enforcing the traffic rules. In this particular Jacksonville will follow the example of Omaha, where nearly 200 citizens were sworn in as special officers to assist in the enforcement of the ordinance. Here a comparatively small number will serve, probably ten or twelve.

Like Mr. Tomlinson, they will serve without pay. Mr. Tomlinson had previously done good work helping to bring about a better understanding of the law as he frequently called attention of auto drivers to the regulations if they were violating them. Very often it is ignorance of the law that brings these violations and it is easy to understand how much improvement in traffic law observance these citizen officials can bring about.

While the work of the officers will probably be mainly in calling the attention of auto drivers to traffic regulations, they have full authority and can make arrests.

GOOD RACING MARKS
GRAND CIRCUIT MEET

POUGHKEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Fine weather, a fast track and good racing marked the third day of the Grand Circuit meeting at the Hudson River Driving park. Thomas W. Murphy repeated his performance of Wednesday in driving three winners, among them Directum J. in the Free-For-All-Pace; while Cox scored with Mignola in the 2:09 trot and Natalie The Great secured revenge on Mr. Dudley for her defeat of last week in Philadelphia by taking the two year old trot after losing the first heat with a bad break at the finish. When Lyman Brusie took Mr. Dudley to a 2:11 victory in the first heat he hung up the second fastest figures that have been made by a two year old trotter this year.

Joint Committee On City
Finances Makes Report

The joint committee of citizens and city council members appointed to consider matters of city finances held a meeting at the council chamber Friday night to receive the report of the sub-committee. This report was received and a vote of thanks extended to the committee for its completeness. The entire report is presented below.

Charles B. Graff was chairman of the committee and Bernard Gause secretary. The other members of the committee were R. L. Pyatt, city clerk; I. W. Eaton and R. A. Gates. Mr. Gates did not sign the report as he said the committee had been appointed to prepare an analysis of the city's books and that the report which was presented is not an analysis, but that the totals were correct but that an analysis to be complete must show the difference between expenses and expenditures. Mr. Graff said that Mr. Gause had done practically all of the extensive work that the report represented, and the report was then read by Mr. Gause. The figures follow:

Jacksonville, Ill.

To the Honorable Members of the Joint Finance Committee:

Your sub-committee selected for the purpose of making a financial statement of receipts and expenditures for this city here submitted a statement which has been taken from the records in the city clerk's office.

This statement has been based upon the assumption of the correctness of these records and is a compilation of the accounts of the city as they appear upon the books of the city and the statement should not be taken as an audit of the accounts which would require such a length of time and expert service as we did not have at our command.

The statements herewith have been as carefully made as we could so considering the length of time we were made with a view to both offering to the members of the city council and the citizens of this community as nearly accurate information upon this subject as we could, that would enable us as a community to be guided by more tangible financial conditions of our municipality, in the determination of remedies to be applied for its relief.

This city has had eight years of administration under the commission form for city government under two different administrations, each serving a period of four years.

By reference to the statement herewith the following analysis has been made:

1911-1914 Inclusive.

During the first 4 years the total expenditures, including money spent by anticipating equalled $432,973.17

Total revenue received equalled 362,328.85

Making a net floating debt of 70,634.32

Less inherited debt 66,000.00

Showing that this administration increased the floating debt 4,634.32

1915-1918 Inclusive

The 2nd 4 years or the last administration the total money secured, including anticipation equalled $464,784.04

Total revenue received equalled 365,302.55

Making a net increase in floating debt 99,481.49

Add to this amount inherited floating debt 70,634.32

Making the total debt

Revenue and Disbursements

Average annual receipts for the past 8 years $90,952.67

Average annual disbursements for the past 8 years 103,968.27

Average annual deficit increased each of the past 8 years 13,015.60

Average annual receipts of the water department 32,880.09

Average annual disbursements of the water department 23,305.78

Average annual surplus 9,574.31

Cemeteries.

The statement shows that it has cost the city in addition to its revenues from both cemeteries an additional sum of $21,994.74.

Disbursements for Year 1918.

As shown on this statement should not be taken as the cost of administration for that one year alone as the accumulated accounts were liquidated for several prior years and appear upon the records of this city as having been adjusted during that year. The prevailing high prices, not yet abated, commenced during the year 1917 and reached an extremely high point during 1918. This administration must face a similar condition insofar as price conditions are concerned.

Floating Debt.

The system of issuing approved vouchers makes it impossible to make a correct statement of the present ownership of these claims as we find that many of them have been transferred from original holders and that many of them remain in possession of the original owners hence it would be a task not easily accomplished to locate the present holders of these claims.

Price, Waterhouse & Co. who made the recent audit of the city's accounts have subdivided the floating debt as follows:

Accumulated interest $ 3,095.72

Merchandise

Accounts held by bank 39,960.64

Accounts held by bank 30,496.81

Labor accounts 64,315.81

Anticipation warrant 39,305.10

Total floating debt $172,174.90

Merchandise accounts we find are a charge against the following departments remaining unpaid:

Water department $11,466.31

Highway 12,177.47

Light maintenance 17,102.57

Police department 751.21

Fire department 885.47

City hall 543.28

Sanitary 221.05

Printing 997.70

Elections 3,621.82

Sidewalks 559.02

Horse fund 216.84

Jacksonville cemetery 306.22

Diamond Grove cemetery 856.95

Salaries

Engineering department $ 3,442.40

Police department 12,429.20

Fire department 9,613.60

Salary department 15,664.80

Highway department 6,495.72

Law department 1,236.00

Sanitary department 516.00

City hall 732.00

From the above statement it will be observed that at the present time, the past city administration borrowed in addition to the anticipation loan a sum equal to $30,496.81, making the total loans at this time the sum of $69,801.91.

The revenue for this city is entirely too small to justify the payment annually of the amount of interest that it must pay for the increasing loans that have been made in the past and this is an expense that must be expired. Salaries for both the light and water department employees have been paid to date from the revenues of the water department and for that reason no labor indebtedness has accumulated in those departments.

The original purpose of anticipating was to secure funds to tide over some extraordinary emergency that arose in a city's affairs and was not primarily intended to be used a part of a regular program as it now has become a common practice. This should be abolished just as soon as it is possible to do so.

Cemeteries.

Both cemeteries show annual deficits. Perhaps it is not possible to entirely eliminate this at the Jacksonville cemetery but past experience has shown that it can be done at the Diamond Grove cemetery. Both of these cemeteries require additional space that is at the present obtainable and some effort should be made to secure the same.

The sextons for these cemeteries have much depending upon them to make these places pay their way; they should be men of some more or less executive ability who are able to manage these departments in such a manner that they could secure the cooperation and assistance of those whose deceased relatives lie within its confines.

Garbage Department.

This department is conducted under a special tax levied and collected for that purpose. For many reasons that may be advanced we do not believe that the feeding of stock from this source will ultimately prove a profitable venture and should be discontinued.

We believe that the cleaning of the street catch basins are a part of the duties of this department and should have the same attention that similar refuse is given from the individual and that this work should be incorporated in the duties of this department.

For many reasons this department should be consolidated under the superintendency of the street commissioner and the office of garbage superintendent abolished insofar as it required the special appointment of such a person for those duties alone.

Water and Light Departments.

By reference to the accompanying table of receipts and expenditures it will be observed that the annual receipts for the water department show an annual surplus of $9,574.31, but this amount of surplus is somewhat more or less obscured as to actual cost as the cost of power has not been added and when this has been done we believe that this department will clearly show a deficit instead of a surplus.

This fact stands out prominently in the statement prepared that either the cost of operation and maintenance is too high for receipts secured or that the charge made for water is too low in price.

The water system has cost a sum in the neighborhood of $600,000 and the price for water sold should be upon such a basis as will provide at least 5 percent per annum for depreciation plus the cost of operation and accretion to the cost of this nation. This department should be carefully organized under a program that is outlined by an expert investigation of its cost of operation and rates for water should be based upon such an investigation.

Sanitary Department.

As the sanitary department is conducted at the present time it is more statistical than medicinal and it should be abandoned. The city clerk is wholly competent to record these statistics and if a "medical staff" of three reputable physicians were appointed who would serve without pay that could be called upon in cases requiring quarantine to make the proper diagnosis that would protect the interests of the city from liability in such cases where disputes arise the cost of this department would be eliminated and the services would be just as efficient.

Civil Engineering.

The program for public work now carried on does not require the all-time services of an engineer and the expense to which the city is required to meet for this service is out of line with the demands for this work and for that reason we would recommend that this office be abolished and that the city employ an engineer when his services are required upon a per diem basis.

Bonded Indebtedness.

The present bonded indebtedness of this city equals the total sum of $105,250.00, and the assessed valuation has been fixed at $6,600,000.00, upon which bonds may be issued in such a sum as will equal 5 percent of this amount, or $330,000.00. Therefore the taxpayers of this city have a legal right to issue additional bonds for the sum of $224,750.00.

The question which now confronts the present city council with reference to a bond issue is two-fold. Shall we issue $170,000.00 in bonds to retire the present floating indebtedness or shall we issue a portion of this amount and another issue for such an amount as will fully equip and complete an up-to-date water system or shall we leave a part of this water system uncompleted on account of too large an issue of bonds for floating indebtedness.

This requires carefully made estimates of the entire cost of the completed water and filtration plant, together with the change of light plant and from this estimate it may be fully determined just what sum of each of these highly important demands will tax our financial power.

Taxpayers.

The city council can pledge itself to appropriate a fixed sum of say $6,000 or $7,000 per annum for each the public library and the parks. This will not raise taxes and allow them to remain just what they would have been if levied upon the new valuation of 50 percent, at the same time provide the greater portion of the amount required for interest and bond retirement for these purposes.

1919 Expenditures.

Prices are so high and uncertain and indefinite that nothing but a guess is possible to be made and the statement that they will be higher or lower is likely to be right. For that reason it is impossible under present conditions to make an analysis of the cost of operation for this year.

Finally.

We would strongly advocate the inauguration of progressive measures in both maintaining our municipal departments and extending others just as fast as plans are matured and we believe that no calamity could befall our city that would be as disastrous as would a policy of "do nothing."

The American people are always willing to stand by and support a government with its dollars and labor that they believe is competent and honest in its effort to render public service and "Jacksonville" is no exception to the rest of this nation.

While it is true that just at present we are a little short of funds, they can and will be raised. Our streets must be kept in better condition and a maintenance department established for this purpose. All night street lights are a great necessity and should be in service here always on account of the prevalence of so many and densely shaded streets.

Mature your plans as accurately as possible, giving consideration to each and every detail, eliminating those expenses which defeat rather than assist progress, keep in mind that you have a special jurisdiction over special funds just the same as if you spent them, but that the taxpayers must bear the entire cost.

and they look to their administration to safeguard their interests.

We submit this report for your consideration under the conditions mentioned at the beginning and trust that the same may prove of value to you in guiding your deliberations.

Those New York theatrical managers don't seem to have a show.

Walt Mason writes from Estes Park that one morning recently he was sitting in a soft drink joint wondering why people persist in living, and a sporty youth strode in demanding a Jess Willard. "What do you mean by that?" inquired the arboreal proprietor. "A bottle of Bevo," replied the youth.

A tuna fish weighing 640 pounds has been caught. If you hear some Jacksonville fisherman offering to bet that it must have been the same one that got away from him last Sunday, take him up. This one was caught in Scotland.

Dr. Osler has just celebrated his 70th birthday. The doctor didn't mean it that way, the time he said it, or he would have completed up to date 30 years of usefulness.

Senator Myers says that 99 percent of congressional inquiries are useless. He came within one of it.

The speeding auto has slowed up considerably by the time it turns turtle.

It is to be hoped that the chautauqua does not interfere with the pleasures of the local golf bugs.

If however the golfers had to lay off a few days possibly the H. C. of L. would be defeated. A young couple lost eight high priced balls in the lake Thursday afternoon. The price of those balls would buy several loaves of bread.

Also a little less lemonade and ice tea might help the sugar shortage.

MOTORISTS HAVE CLOSE CALL ON STATE ROAD

Locked Cars Mow Down 200 Feet of Wire Fence and Plunge Thru Hedge Fence Into Plowed Field—No One Seriously Hurt.

One of the worst automobile accidents of recent days, in which in some miraculous manner no one was killed or even injured, occurred on the state road east of Jacksonville Friday morning.

Both cars in the mix-up were traveling west. Leonard I. Wood of the Pisgah neighborhood was driving his Studebaker car when a Buick Six Roadster driven by Vernon Rexroat attempted to pass him and in attempting to get by the Studebaker car the machines came together in such a way as to virtually lock the running boards together. This would have caused no accident had the cars been traveling at a slow rate of speed, but the high speed of the two quickly threw both the machines out of control, the roadster forcing the cars to the north side of the road. The machines plowed into the staunch wire fence along the north side of the highway, mowed down about 200 feet of the fence, went thru the wire fence and into a hedge fence which divides a field there and went thru the hedge fence. In going thru the hedge however the Studebaker car driven by Mr. Wood struck a hedge tree in such a manner as to throw the car over. This lurch fortunately threw Mr. Wood clear of the car and he escaped with minor injuries. His machine was completely "turtled," all four wheels spinning in the air. The Rexroat roadster went thru the fence into a field of plowed ground but remained upright.

Some idea of the speed the cars must have been going can be gained from what they did after leaving the state roadway. It is certainly fortunate and remarkable that neither of the men were seriously hurt.

Workmen from the Modern Garage brought the Wood car to the city.

Tells Different Story.

Mr. Rexroat when interviewed last night told an entirely different version of how the accident happened. The account given above was secured from some of the men who helped bring the Woods car into Jacksonville for repairs.

Mr. Rexroat states that he was going west along the state road when he heard a car coming up behind him. He says he slowed down to let the other fellow by and try to get out of the dust, when Mr. Woods in his Studebaker attempted to go by him. On account of a rut in the road the back wheels of the Studebaker skidded into and caught onto the end of Rexroat's bumper. This caused both cars to crash into the fence.

Ford Sedan Ripped.

A Ford Sedan ran into a ditch on the Chapin road west of Jacksonville late Thursday night. The accident happened just at the bottom of a hill about five miles from this city where there is a bridge at the foot of an S curve. The driver evidently lost control of the car after crossing the bridge and went down a fifteen foot embankment. Workmen were busy Friday pulling the sedan out of the ditch and bringing it to town for repairs.

His Telephone Pole.

Harry Perry, who resides northeast of the city had the misfortune to run into a telephone pole on South Mauvasterre street early Thursday evening, the collision resulting in considerable damage to his car. The accident was caused by a rut in the road, the car swerving to one side and coming against the post with such an impact that both headlights were broken, one of the front fenders and the front axle bent. Mr. Perry very much regrets the accident as the car is a new one, having been in use not more than two weeks.

TRIPLETT BROTHERS LOSE CAR BY FIRE

Flames Thursday Night Destroy Service Car Near Nichols Park.

Late Thursday evening Triplett Brothers were sending their service car out to the chautauqua grounds with a can of gasoline for some one out there and when near the south end of Hardin avenue gasoline which had leaked from the car took fire and burned all that could burn of the car. They had to leave the wreck for the night and when they returned in the morning they found a sneak thief had stolen the lights, battery and three spark plugs. The big fire caused a great deal of speculation.

HOME AGAIN AFTER TRIP TO CANADA

Mrs. John Chewy and Daughter Return from Pleasant Vacation in Northern Country.

Mrs. John Chewy and daughter, Cora, of South Church street, returned Thursday night from an extended trip to points in Canada. Mr. Chewy went to Chicago to meet them intending to drive home, but owing to some trouble with his car decided to leave it there temporarily and return by train.

The ladies are most enthusiastic over their trip, having thoroughly enjoyed every moment. They made their headquarters at Toronto but made journeys to points of interest, one trip taking them about one thousand miles north-east of that city.

That portion of the trip most interesting and pleasing was the steamship ride down the St. Lawrence river, "shooting" the Lachine rapids and the visit to Montreal. Miss Cora Cherry kept her kodak busy during the entire time and when her album is made up will have a collection of views that will prove increasingly interesting as they recall the many pleasant incidents of the summer's vacation.

"THIRTY" CAME FOR J. N. JOAQUIN FRIDAY

Veteran Printer Died After Long Illness—Employed at Journal for Over Fifty Years.

"Thirty" came for John N. Joaquin, veteran printer and employee of the Journal for more than fifty years, Friday afternoon at 1:55 o'clock.

For several years Mr. Joaquin had been in failing health. The death of his son Carl, three years ago in an automobile accident was a great shock from which he never fully recovered. For several weeks past Mr. Joaquin has been confined to his home.

John N. Joaquin was the son of Anaceto and Mary Rodriguez Joaquin and was born on East College avenue, March 9, 1855, and his entire life was spent here.

He attended the public schools of the city and at an early age he entered the employ of the Journal company. For over fifty years he was a valued member of the Journal force. He was faithful in his duties and thru the years he won the esteem of his employers and the confidence of his fellow workmen.

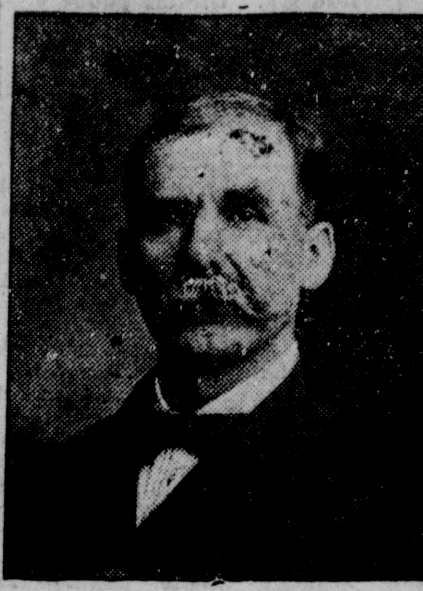

October 12, 1880, Mr. Joaquin was united in marriage to Miss Caroline DeFries. To this union nine children were born. Five of these, Carl N., Joseph, Wallace, Betty G., and Naomi V. preceded him in death.

Besides his widow he is survived by the following children: Joel B. of St. Louis; Paul H. of Lansing, Mich.; Mrs. Guy Lynn and Elmer of this city. He also leaves two sisters Mrs. P. L. Brown, Orlando, Fla., and Mrs. William Silva, Canton; two brothers, J. H. Joaquin of St. Louis and J. M. Joaquin of Kansas City. He is also survived by four grandchildren, Edward Joaquin, Bessie and Ellsworth Joaquin and Helen Lynn.

Mr. Joaquin was a loyal and faithful member of Northminster Presbyterian church and always took an active interest in the work of the church. He was for many years a teacher in the Sunday school and also served in other capacities in the church.

He was also a member of Jacksonville Camp No. 912 Modern Woodmen and of Athens Camp No. 480 Royal Neighbors of America. In both of these organizations he took an active part and passed thru the chairs of the Woodmen. He also served for a number of years as a member of the cemetery commission of Jacksonville under the administration of John R. Davis. Mr. Joaquin had many loved ones resting in Jacksonville cemetery and he gave much time and thought to the affairs of the cemetery while on the board.

Thruout the long years of his life Mr. Joaquin ever took an active interest in the affairs of his fellowman. He was of a kindly nature and his heart and purse were always at the call of those in need.

For many years and until his last illness he was unflinching in calls on the sick and where death had entered the home. No night was too dark and no journey too long to keep him from going when sickness or death came. His philanthropy and kindness was not confined to those whom he knew intimately but the stranger in need reached his sympathies and brought a ready response to the call for aid.

Sorrow too, came to John Joaquin. Many years ago he lost several of his children thru a typhoid fever epidemic. Then came the death of his son Carl thru accident. In all of his sorrow and reverses Mr. Joaquin was sustained by his faith in Jesus Christ and the belief that "He doeth all things well." In the weeks of sickness as in the years preceding Mr. Joaquin had the tenderest care from a loving and devoted wife.

During his long residence here Mr. Joaquin made many friends. To these news of his death will be received with genuine regret. Perhaps the greatest compliment that could be applied to John Joaquin is to say of him what the angel wrote of Abou Ben Adhem, "He was a friend of Man." No arrangements have been made for the funeral.
